What's He doing down ther'

Nothing

Where are the stones?

Somewher' under all of this.

Let's keep it that way.

You know its a trap, right?

Yep. I don't car' much

As long as we are all in agreement.

You could not live with your own failure.

Where did that bring you? Right back to me.

I thought by eliminating half of YouTube channels, the other half would love my movie. But you have shown me that's impossible

Life clings to the past with bloody fingers nails. As long as there are those who remember what was, there will be those who are unable to accept what can be. They will reinstate.

I will shred your websites down to their last atom. With the stones you have collected for me, create a new internet. Teeming with love for my movie. A grateful universe.

Yep. We ae all kinds of stubborn

Born out of blood, Eh?

They will never know. You wont be alive to tell them.
